

the Garden Network

A live, active and growing environment for the garden industry!

A new networking site for all things gardening: garden design, construction and maintenance - full of students, gardeners, beginners and industry professionals.

Everyone gets their own webspace and powerful tools to upload photo's, events and blogs about you, your course or new business, creating your own 'mini-website' and portfolio - just perfect for a student's new career and it's FREE!

THE place to network with;

- garden designers •
- landscapers •
- landscape architects •
- professional gardeners •
- tree surgeons •
- specialist nurseries •
- horti/design College Students •

- Keep in touch with classmates •
- Set up your own 'mini-website' •
- Launch your new business venture •
- Learn lessons from the trade •
- Display work to potential employers •
- Announce college events and days •

Ideal for a budding business or staying in touch with classmates after your course has finished.

"...looks set to become the 'Facebook' of the Horticulture world."
